Researcher's Investigation Points to CCP Involvement in Organ Harvesting Crimes

(Clearwisdom.net) A Japanese enterprise in Shenyang City, China, recently acknowledged that it has been involved in the human organ trade. The legal representative for the company has been arrested. The company's website once clearly stated that their trade in human organs was supported by the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) authorities. Dr. Liu, from the California Natural Rehabilitation Medical Research Institute, said that he had searched websites last year to learn about the organ transplantation situation in China. He found out that the organ transplantation centers he researched had all received organs from the CCP authorities.

Dr. Liu gave some examples of websites that solicited Japanese customers: "On the first page of the website, it stated clearly that their organ transplants are supported by the government. It says that the organs are provided by the government and can be guaranteed. But after the crime of organ theft was exposed to the public, I have been unable to access those and some other Web pages."

Dr. Liu contacted a website named "Yuesheng International Health Service Center". He asked them, "How long does a patient who needs a kidney have to wait?" Liu said that the response was very professional and very clear: "First, you can come to China at any time. After you arrive in China, you only wait for two weeks, at most four weeks, before you can receive a kidney transplant." Dr. Liu said, "It is very clear that they have a rather large organ bank."

Background information: CCP Shuts Down Organ Transplant Website and Arrests Japanese Organ Broker in China

On October 16, Chinese authorities announced that a Japanese man named Hiroyuki Nagase was arrested in China for illegal organ brokering. According to a Chinese Foreign Ministry spokesman, IPC Information Service Co., a Japanese-funded enterprise in Shenyang City in northeastern China "has been found to have released information on the Internet under the name of China International Organ Transplant Support Center and has helped to arrange organ transplants for Japanese patients since 2004." Its website has been shut down abruptly.

IPC website clearly states that the organ transplant trade has support from the CCP.

Introduction to Falun Dafa

Falun Dafa, also known as Falun Gong, is a practice for benefiting physical health and elevating the mind. Introduced by Mr. Li Hongzhi in China, the practice consists of five gentle exercises including meditation, and diligent effort on the part of practitioners to follow the universal principles of Truthfulness-Compassion-Forbearance in daily life. Falun Gong is not only beneficial to one's own health and well-being, it also benefits others. Although the practice originated in China, today it is practiced throughout the world by people of all races and walks of life. In the face of the most brutal and vicious persecution perpetrated on them by the Chinese Communist Party, Falun Gong practitioners have found the spiritual strength to resist peacefully and tirelessly by upholding the principles of Truthfulness-Compassion-Forbearance.

(Clearwisdom.net) On the morning of September 24, 2007, Ms. Wang Yuhuan, 57, from Changchun City, Jilin Province, passed away in the Changchun City Forced Labor Camp Central Hospital while in Changchun City Police custody. None of the responsible government units notified her family of the cause of her death until October 8, 2007, and that was only after the family demanded information.

"We Want to Help Others Learn the Truth and Quit the CCP!"

(Clearwisdom.net) My elder sister and her husband have both retired. They came to visit my parents today. About a year ago, I had given them a copy of the Nine Commentaries on the Communist Party. When I got to my parents' place, my sister's husband told me that he had recommended the book to several close friends. They told me they had already quit the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), "We thought about this quite a while ago. The CCP will be over sooner or later, since it is so corrupt. We do not want to pay the CCP membership fee, but it is deducted from our retirement pay."

My sister then asked me how practitioners pay for the expense of making truth-clarification materials. I said, "All of the money comes from Dafa practitioners. In fact, some practitioners live very difficult lives because of the persecution, but they are very thrifty so that they can save one or two more yuan to make truth-clarification materials."

My sister asked her husband to give me 100 yuan to make truth-clarification materials. He only had 30 yuan with him at the time. I told him, "I want to thank you for supporting us, but I think you will need the money on your way home." My sister said, "No, we will not. The money is not for you but to help more people learn the truth and quit the CCP."
